MY CHRISTIAN MIND.

BY W. H. FERGUSON,
Lexington, Mo.

Can a white man be a Negro when he has Caucasian blood pumped to his brain from a heart which has been given him by the Almighty God? We have mingling within our most high Scribes and Elders a white man whom I have heard preach to many Christians that is a friend to the Negroes.
I may speak too boldly of this white man who is Judge Mayo of Chicago, but if I do, God will forgive as I may be a fool and a fool is not held accountable for what he says or does.
I would like the reader to stop and ask himself in a worldly way: Do we want another Theodore Roosevelt for a president in 1916? I do not expect anybody who has not studied life worldly and spiritually to see that Judge Mayo is nothing else but a false Christ among us. I have heard him say that he is rich and does not need money. I am a Christian and I feel it my duty to warn others of any danger which in years to come will cause them to suffer by being misled. It comes to me that if Judge Mayo is a true born Christian minister of the Gospel as I have heard him say, why there is the A. M. E. Zion church 1805 Woodland avenue a few hundred dollars in debt and there is the Ebenezer A. M. E. church, 16th and Lydia and Allen chapel and the Second Baptist and St. Stephen's Baptist church and a little church at 12th and Woodland and several other near 12th and Highland and several others that I could mention in need of money and I feel if Judge Mayo is rich and knows God's law concerning a rich man and the gates of heaven as he claims to know, he should not talk so much about what a friend he is to the Negro Christians but prove it by making arrangements to stand good for all the debts on church property in Kansas City and a few other churches that he is using to pave his way to the president's chair in 1916. As far as I am concerned it won't make much difference who is in the White House as I feel what the Negro churches need is capital but we haven't time to take such a long shot for the money as Judge Mayo is blindly leading my race into. If a lithe Negroes who contracted to buy property in Gary, Ind., will size up Negro capital, Caucasian capital and especially Eastern capital and if you are well versed in land values you will come to the conclusion that the ratio is too great for the Negro to bite. With peace on earth with good will and God's mercy on the world I close my narrative with
"Amen."
